

June 2009

GPACIFIC Player Frank Dancevic reaches Final in Eastbourne - Back in the TOP 100

As successful as Raemon Sluiter was the Canadian Frank Dancevic. In Eastbourne, Great Britain, the 24-year-old "X-Man" had to pass the qualification first until he cause quite a stir.

In the first round he beat Igor Andreev who is about 100 positions better placed than Frank.

On his way to the final he only lost one set in his quarterfinal match against Leonadro Mayer from Argentina. 6:7 6:4 and 7:5 was the score in the end for the battlesome Canadian.

But unfortunately he could not win his first ATP Title on grass court.

His opponent Dmitry Tursunov won the very close Final 6:3 and 7:6.

Due to this success, Frank is back at the Top 100 again and will be Nr. 92 from Monday on. Frank is one of the many ATP Players who trusts in PACIFIC Strings and Grips. "The Poly Gut Hybrid provides me a maximum of control combined with high speed-up and touch!"

FRANK DANCEVIC TRUSTS IN PACIFIC POLY GUT GUT HYBRID STRING MADE IN GERMANY AND OVERGRIP PACIFIC X TACK PRO

PACIFIC.COM